

The background of the entire page is a soft, warm yellow gradient. Scattered across this background are numerous autumn leaves in shades of orange, red, and brown. A dark brown tree branch enters from the right side, extending upwards and outwards, with several large, detailed maple leaves attached to it. The leaves have prominent veins and some show signs of being eaten or damaged.

Christmas in October

Sharing Cookie Recipes—Reaching for our Goal

On Sunday, October 22, we will celebrate “Christmas in October”, the fourth installment of our effort to raise the money needed to pay off our mortgage before the end of the year. So far, our efforts have raised over $11,000.00 toward our $25,000.00 goal! We hope you will bring a special gift for our mortgage with you on the 22nd and help us get even closer to that goal.

We also invite you to bring two or three dozen of your favorite Christmas cookies, along with copies of the recipe, to share with others after worship. Sharing yourself and your recipe can help all of us to enjoy Christmas this month and in the months leading up to our Lord’s birth.

Come; join us as we celebrate “Christmas in October”!

“The angel said, ‘Joseph, descendant of David, don’t be afraid to take Mary as your wife. The Baby in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a Son. You will name the Son Jesus. Give Him that name because He will save His people from their sins’ (Matthew 1:20b-22, International Children’s Bible).

Riddle’s Answer

The answer to the riddle found in the October 1st bulletin is: Pharaoh’s daughter; she went down to the bank of the Nile and drew out a little prophet (<http://www.you-can-be-funny.com/FunnyBibleQuestions.html>).

Make a Joyful Noise . . .

Sixty years ago, in August of 1957, the Fritz family was on its way to northern Minnesota for a week of vacation. Along the way, we passed through a small town and noticed a sign: Church of Christ, two blocks. It was Sunday morning, and upon seeing the sign, my mother said, “That’s what we are now.”, so we decided to stop for worship. It was an eye-opening decision.

In June of that summer, the United Church of Christ had come into being, and our Evangelical and Reformed church had become UCC. Mom thought we were stopping to worship in a United Church of Christ, but it was a Church of Christ—a totally different animal. The Church of Christ is very fundamentalistic and does not allow instrumental music in worship. Such things are thought to be instruments of the devil. We were too polite to walk out in the middle of the service. All of the Fritzes wanted to run for the door, but we waited for worship to end before making our hasty exit. At first, we wondered what we had gotten ourselves into with the United Church of Christ. Later, we learned that the UCC was different from the Church of Christ—and we rejoiced!

That little episode reminded all of us how important music was to our worship experiences. Mom played organ. My sister and I sang in the children’s choir, and we all loved hearing the music of worship accented with various instruments. Later, as a college student, I introduced “Rock Worship” to my church and held services on Sunday evenings that used rock music instead of traditional church music. The youth loved it; the adults were not too enthused;

Neighbors in Need Offering Sunday

This year, the United Church of Christ's theme, for the Neighbors in Need Campaign (NIN), is "Protect the Sacred: In a Just World, Clean Water is Life." The Neighbors in Need offering, which we will receive on Sundays, October 1 through October 29, 2017, supports the UCC's ministries of justice and compassion throughout the United States. Two-thirds of the total offering is used by the UCC's Justice and Witness Ministries to fund a wide array of local and national justice initiatives advocacy efforts, as well as, direct service projects. Through www.ucc.org/justice, the UCC's National Justice and Witness Ministries office offers resources, news updates, and action alerts on a broad spectrum of justice issues.

Working with members of the UCC Justice and Peace Action Network (a network of thousands of UCC justice and peace advocates), the Justice and Witness Ministry continues its strong policy of advocacy work on issues such as the federal budget, voting rights, immigration, health care, hate crimes, civil liberties, and environmental justice.

Neighbors in Need also supports American Indians in the UCC. One-third of the offering supports the UCC's Council for American Indian Ministries (CAIM).

Historically, forbearers of the UCC established churches and worked with Lakota, Dakota, Nakota, Mandan, Hidatsa, Arickara, and Hocak in North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin, and northern Nebraska. Today, there are twenty UCC congregations on reservations and one urban, multi-tribal UCC congregation, in Minneapolis, Minnesota. These congregations and their pastors are supported by CAIM. CAIM is an important resource for more than 1,000 individuals from dozens of tribes and nations, who are members of UCC congregations in the United States of America!

Please be sure to give in addition to your regular tithes and offerings, as all of the proceeds we collect for the NIN Campaign will go to the United Church of Christ Justice and Witness Ministries through our Conference Office. Thank you.

Special Thanks

A couple of months ago, we were in search of folks who were willing and able to embroider baptism napkins. We are grateful to report that we have had three ladies step forward with beautifully embroidered baptism napkins. Not only did these ladies embroider the fabric, but also they found or created the patterns they used, as well as, the fabric itself! To God be the glory for such talent, generosity, and willing hearts and hands! We send a special thank you out to, Marian Zuleger, Brandy Krull, and Betty Schroeder (Brandy's grandma) for your donations of time, talent, and materials! We really appreciate each of you and each embroidered napkin you have and will donate.

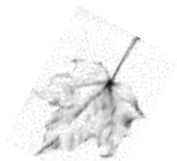

"You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us" (2 Corinthians 9:11 NRSV).

but, it was a joyful noise.

I have always enjoyed the music of worship, and I have come to appreciate the variety of musical styles that can be used in worship. When I attended the General Synod in Providence, Rhode Island, in 1999, I was overwhelmed with the music, which was all provided by drums. It was the most stirring joyful noise I had ever heard.

Music plays a vital role in worship. It touches that part of the human spirit that needs more than words to know God. Music also presents a challenge. Each person has her or his favorite musical genre. Some like Country, while others prefer Rock. Still others like Rap, or Jazz, or Blue Grass, or Gospel music. If we want to reach all who worship with us, we sometimes have to use and accept different musical styles. Doing so helps us reach more persons with the love of God and the joy of worship.

I have many colleagues who spend time in meditation and prayer as a means of keeping connected to God. I have never been able to cultivate that practice. It seems cumbersome and does not seem to fit who I am. I would rather sing a hymn or hum its tune to myself, or listen to music that expresses the joys and challenges of being human—even if it is not religious music. Many years ago, I heard a statement that has stuck with me ever since: “He who sings prays twice.” I do not know who first said those words, but they sum up my point of view. I find that I am closest to God when there is a joyful noise in the air or in my heart. I pray twice a lot.

As we begin another program year at St. John's UCC, I invite you to consider being part of our music ministry. We can always use another voice in the choir. If you cannot sing throughout the year, consider joining us for Christmas or Easter. If you have a musical gift, consider sharing it in a solo performance on a Sunday that the choir is not singing. If you play in a band, sing in a group, or like karaoke, consider sharing your music with us on a Sunday morning. Your joyful noise may be just what someone else needs to touch their heart or lighten their burdens. Talk to our Music Director, Bonnie Vander Linden, or to me. We would love to hear your music in our worship ministries.

Together we can make a more joyful noise to God.

Peace, Pastor Tom

Best Choice Save-A-Label Program

Do you buy Best Choice brand products? I buy their white popcorn (unpopped). It is delicious and usually pops better than big brand names.

It is tender and tasty (white popcorn is more tender than yellow, in general). Nevertheless, if you prefer yellow popcorn, you can certainly buy yellow from this brand too. Sal's and Don's grocery stores in Black Creek and Seymour, respectively, sell this brand! If you do, please cut around the UPC symbol, on each Best Choice product you have. It's not necessary to send in the whole label. Place your labels in the box between the office doors, and Kim will collect and redeem them for cash, through the program, for St. John's! St. John's need to submit a minimum of 1,000 labels in order to receive the financial reward. They will add up if we all cut and turn in labels.

Women's Guild

The Women's Guild met on Wednesday, September 6, 2017, at 1:30 p.m., with eight members present.

Our devotional leader was Roberta Lorenz, who shared a reading entitled, "Life Begins at 80!" God has a plan for all agers. He also has a picture for us. We just keep moving on together in all that life throws at us. Roberta shared a story about a choir practice that was late. God was with them; the church was destroyed hours before. Everyone with God's help and prayers bonded together to rebuild. Another reading was shared, which was written by Pastor Robin, about her moving thoughts regarding our church. It was very touching. Devotional time closed with a prayer.

The business meeting portion was called to order by Roberta Lorenz, Guild President. The secretary's report was read and approved as read. The treasurer's report was read and approved as read. There is a balance of $5,625.36, in the general fund, and $478.98, in the memorial fund.

The Fall Feast is to be held on Sunday, October 1, 2017. We discussed matters regarding the feast. Check Guild book for committees. The committees need your help in preparation on Saturday and Sunday. We look forward to your tasty pies, cakes, and tortes, as donations to share.

We plan to clean the church's kitchen on October 11, 2017, and ask if you are able and willing to help, please come and help.

A motion was made and seconded to give Raphi Jochman $100.00 as counselor for all her camp work. God bless Raphi, in her leadership in Christ's name. Thank you.

Our next Guild meeting will be Wednesday, October 4, 2017, at 1:30 p.m., with devotions by Lisa Raaths, and our October hostess is Ruth Hanson.

A motion was made and seconded to adjourn with the Lord's Prayer prayed in unison.

The Doxology was sung and then we were served a delicious dessert by Judy Samson.

God bless you all.

P.S. The Fall Rummage Sale held on September 9, 2017, was a little slow, but the Bake Sale was sold out. Many thanks to all who contributed in any way.

Mortgage Reduction Giving Update

To God be the glory! We are joining efforts with one another and making a difference in our mortgage. Thus far, we have received $14,600 (about 58.4% of goal) toward our $25,000.00 goal before year-end. Here is the breakdown:

- July, 24 giving units gave $5,500.00 (about 22% of goal);
- August, 30 giving units gave $5,000.00 (about 20% of goal);
- September, 28 giving units gave $4,100.00 (about 16.4% of goal).

Thank you to all who have given in addition to your regular tithes and offerings! If you have not given toward our debt reduction goal and are able, please consider giving this month and / or in November. Check out the chart below; we are more than halfway there!
